To contribute to a fair and just society and safe and healthy communities.

• Our values

Our values underpin everything we do and are the building blocks for our workplace culture. They guide our behaviour and decision making and support us in being a high performing, impartial and productive workplace that puts the people of Queensland first.

Our objectives

The Queensland Government’s objectives for the community

We contribute to the following Queensland Government objectives for the community:

Delivering quality frontline services – providing responsive and integrated government services; and supporting disadvantaged Queenslanders, by delivering a diverse range of services across Queensland to various client groups, including to the most vulnerable members of the community such as:

- victims of crime including victims of family and domestic violence
- adults with impaired capacity
- children in need of protection
- people with disability, and
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

Building safe, caring and connected communities – ensuring an accessible and effective justice system; encouraging safer and inclusive communities; and building regions by creating a more integrated justice system, including:

- helping Queenslanders to understand and interact with the justice system
- strengthening laws to support safer Queensland communities
- safely managing and rehabilitating offenders
- improving the outcomes for children and their families in the child protection system
- screening of people employed in child related services
- assisting business and protecting consumers in the marketplace, and
- building regions by continuing to improve our services delivered through various locations across the state.

Our strategic risks and opportunities

We actively seek opportunities to manage our strategic risks and achieve our objectives.

- We are developing an evidence-informed, criminal justice strategy to better navigate the complexities of the justice system and to help us identify innovation in service delivery, better manage demand and identify areas of potential growth.
- Developing our technology to support service delivery, meet stakeholder and community expectation and manage our technology risks.
- Effective leadership, management and workforce planning continues to assist us to ensure we have the right capability, capacity and engagement to meet our current and future needs.
- Our governance framework supports effective decision-making, integrity and accountability and drives performance improvements which provides an opportunity to further build community trust in Queensland’s justice system.
- Queensland’s regional dispersion drives us to continually evaluate our service delivery models to ensure we have the right resources across the state to deliver effective services.
- Our vision, purpose and values underpin our commitment to the health, safety and wellbeing of all Queenslanders and provide an opportunity for continuous improvement as a workplace and as a service provider within the community.
