

PRESIDENTIAL DIRECTION 1 OF 2008

CHILDREN SERVICES TRIBUNAL

WITHDRAWAL OF REVIEW APPLICATIONS PURSUANT TO SECTION 71(1)(b) OF THE CHILDREN SERVICES TRIBUNAL ACT 2000

This Presidential Direction is issued pursuant to section 54 of the Children Services Tribunal Act 2000.

1. The president directs, pursuant to section 71(1)(b) of the Children Services Tribunal Act 2000 that an applicant may verbally withdraw a review application to the Tribunal during a hearing or preliminary conference.
2. The president directs, pursuant to section 71(1)(b) of the Children Services Tribunal Act 2000 that an applicant may withdraw a review application by way of written correspondence including email correspondence.

[Note: This direction does not effect the authority of the tribunal, the president or deputy president to direct that an applicant may withdraw a review application in another way (not prescribed by this direction) pursuant to section 71(1)(b) of the Children Services Tribunal Act 2000.]

This Presidential Direction is effective immediately.
