

Law Week 2012

www.lawweek.qld.gov.au

14-20 May

Crossword puzzle

Across

- The person who conducts a civil marriage ceremony (9)
- To seek a review against a conviction is called an _____ (6)
- When you do something illegal you are committing a _____ (5)
- The person who looks after the jury and calls the witnesses to the stand is called the _____ (7)
- If a guilty verdict is delivered in a trial, the judge hands down a _____ (8)
- The person who presents the case against the defendant is called a _____ (10)
- You need _____ to build a case (8)
- The main service of a Dispute Resolution Centre is called _____ (9)
- The group of 12 people who make a decision in a court case (4)
- A person charged with a serious offence may be detained while the case is heard – this is called being _____ in custody (8)
- The Registry of _____, Deaths and Marriages records all the new babies born, marriages and deaths in Queensland (6)
- Unpaid fines are commonly referred to the State Penalties Enforcement _____ for collection (8)

Down

- The colour of a police officer's uniform (4)
- Cases involving juvenile defendants are dealt with by the _____ Court (9)
- The court where less serious crimes such as traffic offences are heard (11)
- JP stands for Justice of the _____ (5)
- The legal counsel who represents a defendant in court is known as a _____ (7,6)
- A person who gives evidence in court is called a _____ (7)
- Courts deal with both criminal cases and _____ cases (5)
- In court the judge sits at the _____ (5)
- The court where crimes such as armed robbery are heard (8)
- A person who is affected by a crime is a _____ (6)
- The court that reviews accidental or sudden death is a _____ court (8)
- The title of the person who presides over a case in the District Court (5)

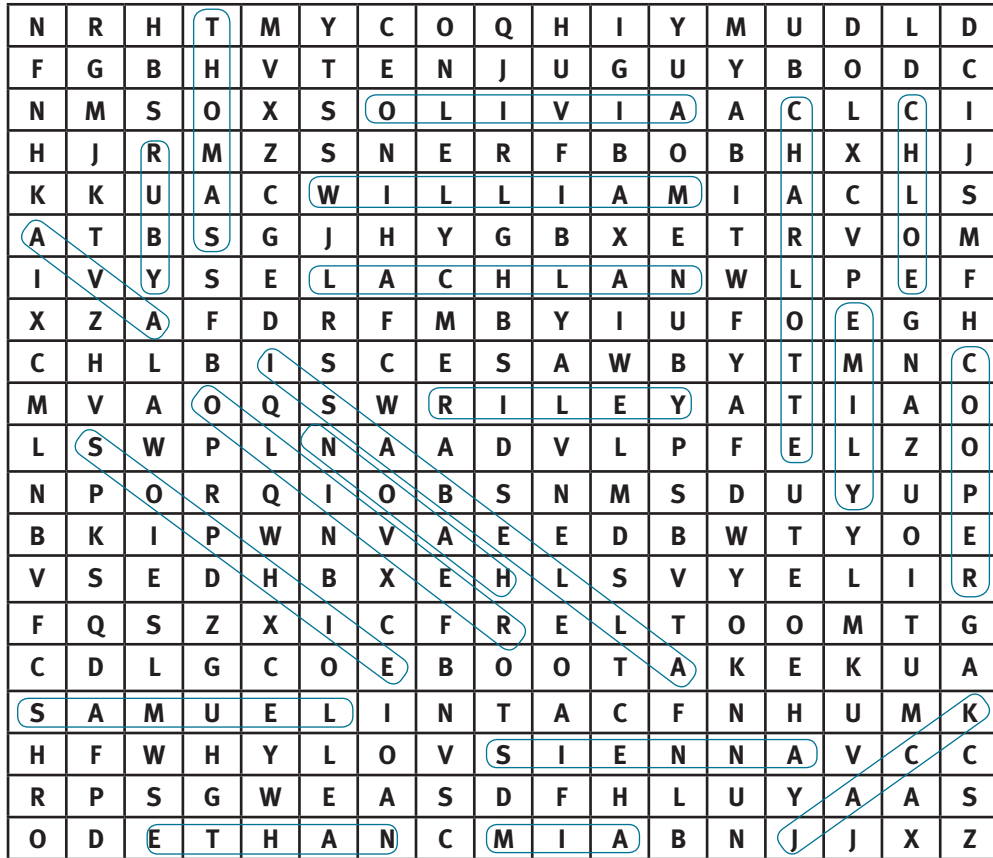

See other side for the Find the names activity.

Law and Justice in your Community

Find the names

Did you know?

In 2011 more than 450 Queensland parents named their son Cooper.

In 2011 more than 370 Queensland parents called their daughter Sophie.

Baby name meanings

The name Mia is of Latin origin and means "like a bird".

The name Samuel is a Hebrew name and means "his name is God".

The name William is an English name and means "strong-willed warrior".

The name Emily is an English name that means to strive or excel.

Boys

COOPER

WILLIAM

JACK

ETHAN

LACHLAN

OLIVER

NOAH

RILEY

THOMAS

SAMUEL

Girls

SOPHIE

RUBY

CHLOE

ISABELLA

MIA

EMILY

CHARLOTTE

SIENNA

AVA

OLIVIA