

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Saturday, 5 January 2013 9:03 AM
To: Electoral Reform
Subject: Re: Compulsory voting

We wish to object to the scrapping of compulsory voting. It is important that people (including the younger aged groups) understand the value of having their own say even if it is a void vote - because this says something in its self. Compulsory voting has been hard fought for and should continue for all Australians.

Julie & Peter Lumsdale