

Hello, I live in the Maroon electorate of Bruce Scott and wanted to originally send this message to him but on the contact link on his web page is no email link like this one. What I wanted to share is my concern that the LNP are wanting to change the voting policy and stop compulsory voting. I believe this is wrong as it will take away our responsibility from electing representatives from our area and we would end up with gerrymanders everywhere. I know a lot of people don't like voting but its the only time that we as citizens are expected to be responsible and keep our politicians on track. I also read in the Australian today that the federal liberal party is also trying to change the voting, I hope that is not true. Thanking you and could you please pass this on to Bruce Scott for me, thanks, Arthur Marriott ps I spent over 10 minutes trying to send from the info page on the mla website of Tony's it does not respond to the security codes you type in?
