

Leadership and participation		Communities for all		Employment		Everyday services		Education
LEADERSHIP AND DECISION MAKING	INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL PARTICIPANT REPRESENTATION	CONSULTATIVE COMMITTEE	ACCESSIBILITY	NDIS PROMOTION	OUR STAFF	READYING FOR WORK	EQUITABLE ACCESS	PROTECT RIGHTS	EDUCATION
Communicate and consult on the DJAG Disability Service Plan across all divisions including people with a disability and regional participation.	Identify leaders at all levels across the department and key stakeholders to drive the focus and outcomes of the DJAG Disability Service Plan.	Consider appropriate governance and advisory arrangements to support the DJAG Disability Service Plan.	Work towards ensuring all DJAG information is accessible and provided in multiple formats.	Continue to provide information and advice about the Australian Consumer Law to both consumers and providers of National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) services.	Continue to develop promotion and support materials for managers about inclusive practices to support a diverse workforce.	Continue to provide access to re-entry services for people transitioning from adult correctional and youth justice systems to support potential employment opportunities	Consider the multiple disadvantages experienced by young people with disability when developing and completing reviews of youth detention services, policies, procedures and published and online material.	Explore options to better support people with disability who are experiencing domestic and family violence.	Continue to provide access to education and training for people coming into contact with adult correctional and youth justice systems.
Consider nomination of a Champion for the DJAG Disability Service Plan.	Continue to provide opportunity for community legal centres and other community groups to apply for funding to support vulnerable Queenslanders, including help and support for Queenslanders with disability.		Continue to increase accessibility of DJAG forms on Queensland Government websites.	Continue to implement the department's NDIS transition strategy.	Develop inclusive recruitment processes for people with a disability across attraction, recruitment, retention, career progression and development that contributes to increasing the Queensland Public Sector workforce to 8% by 2022.		Courts and tribunals will continue to explore options for people with disability coming into contact with the justice system and for conducting hearings that are inclusive of people with disability.	Continue to develop strategic relationships with private and public stakeholders to protect the rights of vulnerable citizens, particularly those in regional and remote areas.
Consider and develop data collection strategies to support reporting and decision making.			Continue to consider accessibility options and provide accessibility advice for DJAG events.		Develop inclusive and accessible recruitment and employment processes to improve opportunities for people with a disability to apply for jobs in DJAG.		Explore options to reasonably adjust programs and services delivered in Queensland correctional centres to support the participation of prisoners with disability.	Continue to focus on issues regarding elder abuse across all cultures and communities including law reform.
			Consider the needs of Queenslanders with a disability in building upgrades and new construction.				Support the use of the cognitive impairment screening tool in Queensland correctional centres state-wide, to better identify prisoners with a cognitive impairment.	Ensure Victim Assist Queensland promotes victims' rights and engages with services that support victims of crime living with a disability with effective referrals to relevant agencies.
			Continue to provide language, translating and communication services to DJAG clients.					Maintain a strong voice for the rights of Queenslanders with impaired capacity.

The Department of Justice and Attorney-General (DJAG) Disability Service Plan (DSP) and the state disability plan, All Abilities Queensland: opportunities for all, align with, and will deliver on, Queensland's commitments under the National Disability Strategy 2010-2020 and its second implementation plan, Driving Action 2015-2018.

The DSP and the state disability plan complement Queensland's transition to the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS), with full implementation in 2019 as outlined in the Bilateral Agreement between the Commonwealth and Queensland – transition to a NDIS.

The DSP and the state disability plan contribute to meeting the Queensland Government's obligations under the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities.

DJAG will continue to develop and improve its DSP to support its commitment to an all abilities Queensland, with opportunities for all.

