

From: n k |
Sent: Thursday, 3 January 2013 10:42 PM
To: Electoral Reform
Subject: QLD VOTING

To Whom it may Concern, and in this case all of QLD!

I am so proud that I can say that every Australian over the age of 18 will have to contribute to what occurs in this country at both the federal and state level. You have the right to do a donkey vote but the percentage that do is far less than the people who wish to be heard. I did not vote for the government in power however I do believe in the rights of those around me to have elected them. I am disgusted that the current government wishes to cash in on votes by removing one of the few remaining motivators to vote for some people, it ensures that every Queenslander has to stop and think about what they want for their states future. Please dont remove this.

I do believe that voting could be made easier, an app? Using that pointless rego number of where your name sits, its in order b is after a, getting rid of this would save money. Would Queensland be the first to try this?

Thank you
A sad Queenslander
Natasha Khan