7 Compulsory voting.

This is the only one I care about. Leave it the way it is. I think it's great the EVERYONE has their say. If people want to waste their vote by putting a donkey vote in then that's their right. Because they put a donkey vote in it doesn't mean that they all didn't want to vote. It might mean they didn't want to vote in any of the parties. There are some people that don't want to vote. I know I would want to win an election knowing that everyone voted rather than only 50% or whatever it might be. How many people vote in America? I thought I heard on abc radio, it was like 40% of the country. What a joke.

Leave compulsory voting alone. It's the only way to get a true result.

Thankyou
