

From: Clare Sladden
Sent: Friday, 4 January 2013 6:58 PM
To: Electoral Reform
Subject: Electoral changes

To whom it may concern:

I am totally against any change to the current compulsory nature of state voting in Queensland. Any change would be an absolute embarrassment to the state, when we've had more than enough of those since the Newman government came to power.

Clare Sladden